Picked Up Here and There.

King George has decided that when he "The School for Scandal" at Covent Garden, London, next With Honors. month, they will to the theater without military es-The king is in sympathy with the olice that it is undesirable at present in the London streets. Therefore it is also expected that the king will dispense with the guard that it is usual to post outside the theater on the occasion of a visit of this description. It is thought probable that Queen Alexandra and other members of the royal family will likewise attend this performance.

For costly and artistic gowns the second and final assembly ball of the season, which was held at Boston Finish to the Copley-Plaza last These Gowns. Friday night, will rank among the Nearly every costume bore the unmis node of full skirt being very much in evience, and the colors and the materials being of the most exquisite description being of the most exquisite description. The ladies in the receiving line were Mrs. Bryce J. Allan, who was beautifully gowned in black tulle with silver embroidery and a girdle of orange satin; Mrs. Francis Peabody, black and white striped silk, the overdress draped to show horizontal stripes of black and the bodiee draped with point lace; her jewels were a wide velvet collar with solitaire diamond pendants and a diamond brooch; Mrs. Roger Wolcott, handsome and stately in black and silver brocade, with flounces of white lace on the skirt, also wore a collar of pearls and a black ostrich plume in her hair; Mrs. Barrett Wendell, jr., white satin and white tulle; Mrs. J. Montgomery Sears, crimson satin brocaded with eliver her institutions. white satin and white tulle; Mrs. J. Montgomery Sears, crimson satin brocaded with silver, her jewels were a long rope of pearls and baroque pearl earrings; Mrs. E. V. R. Thayer, cerise tulle over cerise satin, and Mrs. Henry Parkman, blue and silver brocade bordered with marabou, and flounces of white lace on the skirt; the sleeves were of white lace and a band of brilliants outlined the V-shaped bodice; Mrs. Constance Gardner, who wore black tulle over black satin with a girdle of orange satin; Mrs. Rockwood Hoar, black tulle with steel embroidery, and her daughter, Miss Frances Hoar, in green and silver brocade, were present from this city.

And aren't those women who enjoy good, healthy exercise going to be glad that they haven't

Ever Ride an let their figures
Electric Horse? sleavenly look omatch, fintened at one side under the lett care with a little bunch of the lett care with a little worms was of white crep with a little worms was of white crep with a little worms was of white care with a little worms was of white was a most brunches are; in white. He would be a little worms was applied about the letter with a little worms was applied about the worms packed with a little worms was a little worms was a little

Lord Kitchener has a country residence at Broome Park, Canterbury, England, but has Lord Kitchener's no town house, and since he assumed his very responsible duties at the war office he has en joyed the hospitality of Lady Wantage's house, in Carlton Gardens.

Some unusual costumes were seen at the Philadelphia Shrove Tuesday bal masque. Mrs. Joseph Worn at the Parker Norris, jr., rep-Bal Masque, resented a crimson rambler in all the beauty of full bloom. Her skirt reached

VISITOR FROM LOUISIANA.

Of Lake Providence, La., who is the guest of her uncle and aunt. Senator and in Boston is arousing much interest. touch of ermine. The "fete" will be Real Antiques at descriptive of a cen-

Fashion Fete. from 1815 to 1915. and authentic gowns, in ten-year periods, will be shown. The gowns are not to be displayed in a procession of figures, but in groups, such as a garden It is understood now that York House, St. James' Palace, has been placed at his disposal. Since the outbreak of the war the Prince of Wales has handed it over to the national relief fund, of which he is the head. The administration of the relief fund will be transferred to 33 Belgrave square.
The suite of apartments in St. James' Palace now known as York House was the residence of King George when he was the Duke of Vork. For a century York House had only two tenants—the Duke of Cumberland, fifth son of George III, afterward King of Hanover, and the Duchess of Cambridge, who occupied the apartments from 1851 until her death, in 1899.

Some unusual costumes were seen at the Philadelphia Shrove Tuesday hal party, afternoon tea, a musical, etc., appearance in society. Had peace prefigures, but in groups, such as a garden lately celebrated their golden wedding at C r o o m e

A Worcestershire Court, Worces-Golden Wedding. tershire, Eng-

Bal Masque, rambiber in all the beauty of full bloom. Her skirt reached slightly below the kince and was of yellow chiffon, which was covered with a lattice-like trimming of green ribbon velvet, through which peeped the red buds of the rambler. Yellow stockings and gold slippers completed guisse.

Miss Ralph M. Townsend played the part of an aminated balloon with her voluminous skirt of yellow taffeta with was a small hat, from the voluminous skirt of yellow taffeta with ward of the beauty of an aminated balloon with her voluminous skirt of yellow taffeta with ward of the beauty of an aminated balloon with a trimmed on the hem with fur, to which were attached numerous carl-colored miniature balloons. Perched saucily on her head was a small hat, from the the many-hued small balloons. Purple stockings and slippers contrasted vividity with the gay costume and matched the touches of purple on the bodice.

Miss Ralph M. Townsend played the part of an aminated balloon with a furth was a small hat, from the commissioned officers and men; of the wast, which the gay costume and matched the touches of purple on the bodice.

Miss proper of the second Earl of Craven and the touches of purple on the bodice.

Miss cand white striped skirt, cut well above the ankles, and a walst of a red-and-black of country of the second Earl of Craven and three daughters. The short sleeves black with a pompon of red. Her shoes and slippers were black would be succeeded the country of the second Earl of Craven and three daughters.

Miss Leta Livingston Sullivan went as "matched the touches of purple on the bodice."

Miss Leta Livingston Sullivan went as "matched the touches of purple on the bodice."

Miss Leta Livingston Sullivan went as "matched the touches of purple on the bodice of the second Earl of Craven and three daughters. The short sleeves black with a pompon of red. Her shoes and slippers were black sullivant went as "matched the touches of purple on the bodice of the second Earl of Craven and the purple shockings and was provided picked out with rhinestones and pearls. There exceeding the speed limit. It lent quite an exciting touch. The reception was directly after the ceremony; that is, as soon as the guests could get to the house.

It was not a large reception, but very gay, as there was dancing, and some of the younger set arrived a little late and stayed to dance.

A fashion fete to be given next month in Boston is arousing much interest.

On April 25 Princess Mary of England will attain the age of eighteen, the ankle with a double puff and frill, much like a Pierrot costume. The frock The shoulder straps were formed of a succession of large pearls surrounded by big proportions down the front. White kid shoes were worn, and a full white satin Dutch cap was finished at the end with a long beaded tassel.

Like Hard Times. were shimmers were shimmers with a long beaded tassel.

*

The bridesmaids at Miss Daphne Brown and Robert Marvin Nelson's wedding last Wed-Beat the Guests nesday afternoon, in Back Home.

St. Louis, carried the loveliest muffs of pink maline with tiny bouquets of pink were powdered with se beyond description. There with a frill of the lace about her face. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds. Miss Caroline Lydia Wyeth, who was her sister's maid of honory and only attendant, wore a quaint, old-time frock of pale green silk brocaded in silver, the hem caught up at intervals by lavender ruchings. The low, round-necked with priceless furs, and wraps and finished with a frill of the lace about her face. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds. Miss Caroline Lydia Wyeth, who was finished at the end with a frill of the lace about her face. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds. Miss Caroline Lydia Wyeth, who was her sister's maid of honory and only attendant, wore a quaint, old-time frock of pale green silk brocaded in silver, the hem caught up at intervals by lavender ruchings. The low, round-necked or pale may be a developed and the short puffed sleeves were finished with white lace frills, and a narrow girdle of lavender velvet out lined the high waist line. Her transparent her with a frill of the lace about her face. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds.

Miss Caroline Lydia Wyeth, who was her sister's maid of honory and only attendant, wore a quaint, old-time frock of pale green silk brocaded in silver, the hem caught up at intervals by lavender velvet and cordure.

One point that every hostess of this winter seems to agree upon is that the entertaining of the New York Beaux average young man. T. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goodrick, Mr. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bronson, 341 14th street, gave a valentine party hast week. Mrs. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bronson, 341 14th street, gave a valentine party hast week. Mrs. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bronson, 341 14th street, gave a valentine party hast week. Mrs. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bronson, 341 14th street, gave a valentine party the very more party and the average dancing man—that is, of the young rest. And the same present were the Misses Cattering will be a short of the very more party there is a dearth of eligilation of the party the very more griefs. And this among ment that one street, and the very more griefs. And the same young men when they party the very many was an awful hore because it meant that one had to give up so much of one's time.

A Surprise Party.

T. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goodrick, Mrs. L. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Weet Goodrick, Mrs. L. Goodrick, draped in chantilly lace. An orchestra William Owen, Mrs. E. G. Marshall, Mrs. Eugina Zea Rollins, Mrs. Ella Calvert Wrenn, Mrs. Archibald Young. Mrs. Howell Smith, assisted by Mrs. James Mulcare, Mrs. West, Mrs. Saul, Mrs. Tomlinson, Miss Wills and Mrs. Hutton, will be at the tea table.

with a quantity of pansies and lilacs shading from palest lavender to deep mauve tones. Her flowers were mauve orchids. She also wore lavender hose and silver sandals with silver straps. Another bride of that day at St. Thomas', Miss Grace Harriet Stone, now Mrs. Sydney Miller Lloyd of Lynchburg, Va., wore a white satin gown, with a satin court train bordered with ermine; the kimono-shaped corsage was trimmed with seed pearls, and the lace veil was bordered with tulle and held with a trail of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was made up of white orchids and lilles of the valley.

Her three attendants were gowned alike in short, full pink satin frocks, with white lace about the neck and corsage, and wore large white leghorn hats trimmed with pink roses and brown velvet, a brown velvet streamer going from each hat to the one wrist, where it was looped to the arm with pink rosebuds. They carried long stemmed pink roses.

**

One point that every hostess of this winter seems to agree upon is that the entertaining of the New York Reany average young man. erine Mackessy. Those present were Mrs. D. Mackessy, Miss Agnes Reith, Mrs. F. C. Rupp, Mrs. W. Spatts, Mrs. Rudolph Philipitt and Misses Agnes and Catherine Mackessy. Next Tuesday afternoon Mrs. F. C. Rupp will enter-tain the society.

A colonial tea and dance will be given tomorrow afternoon, under the auspices of the Mildred Lee Society, Children of the Confederacy, at Memorial Hall, 1322 Vermont avenue. The patronesses are Mrs. William Cummins Story, Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, Mrs. Magnus Thompson, Mrs. Thomas Gilbert Riley, Mrs. John Hickey, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Archibald Young. Mrs. Eugina Zea Rollins, Mrs. Ella Calvert Wrenn, Mrs. Archibald Young. Mrs. Howell Smith, assisted by Mrs. James Mulcare, Mrs. West, Mrs. Saul, Mrs. Tomlinson, Miss Wills and Mrs. Hall and Ella Carroll, Mr. Guy and Augusta Schultz, Mr. Suontoria, Mr. Lewis Simmons and Grace Higdon.

The D. C. Dances.

Mr. Neyle Colquitt is chairman of the floor committee for the series of four dances to be given by the Daughters of the Confederate Memorial Home. These dances, the second of which will be held Thursday, February 25, are to be given at the Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue.

The following additions to the floor committee have been made: Messrs. Dunlap Wakefield, Harrison Yelverton. Clifford Whyte, Arthur Molten, Charles Bowie, Allan Reese, Greer Marichal, Joseph Kirkle, J. West Chambers, Stanley Holland and Brandan Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Porter entertained at the considation of four tables. The first gentleman's prize was won by B. Stidham, second by R. Baker and the consolation by Mr. Cornell. The first lady's prize went to Mrs. Cornell, second to Miss N. De Frietas. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock in the dining room. The place cards, favors and tally cards were made by the hostess.

The guests were Misses Hazel Chisholm, Mae De Frietas, Sadie Wood. Nettie De F

Yesterday's Tea Dances.

ruary 7 in honor of Mr. Richard Damm, Mrs. Darling's father, who is visiting them from New York. Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Darling, Mrs. Theodore Huber, Mrs. Delphine Darling, Mr. Charles Gheen, Mr. and Mrs. E. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Caldwell. Mrs. Mahlon Pitney entertained at a The members of the Golden Leaf Sewing Society spent a pleasant aft-ernoon last Tuesday with Miss Cath-erine Mackessy. Those present were

The tea dance given by Mrs. Eberle, bride's parents, 1925 F street northwife of the commandant of the navy west. yard, for her guest, Miss Mildred North of Providence, R. I., was one of Rev. Mr. Roy Houghton of Vermont,

The third meeting of the Chevy Chase Five Hundred Club met at the home of Mrs. J. K. Webster Friday afternoon The hours were most enjoyably spent. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hales, Mrs. Forbert and Mrs. Crampton. Those present were: Mrs. Harold Doyle, Mrs. James E. Fitz Gibbon, Mrs. B. W. Cluswell, Mrs. George P. Hales, Mrs. Edmund Brady, Mrs. Abner H. Ferguson, Mrs. R. W. Crampton. Mrs. Pithea, Mrs. Ralph H. Fleharty, Mrs. J. K. Webster, Mrs. R. W. Crampton, Mrs. Pithea, Mrs. Ralph H. Fleharty, Mrs. J. K. Webster, Mrs. Forbert, Mrs. E. T. Miller, Mrs. C. A. Jones, Mrs. Spokes, Mrs Nye, Mrs. Burrell and Mrs. I. Brown. The next meeting will be at the house of Mrs. Abner H. Ferguson.

At Home Tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Rice, entertained for her house guest, Miss Grace Dinnis of Arlington, Md., last week, Miss Dinnis formerly resided in this city. John Kerfoot Haywood of Belmont street will be at home tomorrow, 4 to Last Tuesray evening a theater party was given by the Tucquan Canoe Club to Dr. and Mrs. Clinton. In the party were Misses M. Burgess, H. Shuff, A. McKnight, L. Harris and M. Lyons. Messrs F. A. De Long, Philip Ege, Waiter Carter, jr., Carel Walzl and Ralph Fox. ing with them will be Mrs. Chapman's daughters, Mrs. Addison Smith and Miss Chapman, and the following ladles will assist: Mrs. William J. Brown of West Virginia, Mrs. J. William Ginnaty, Mrs. Rexford Smith, Mrs Donald Godwin, Mrs. Ginnaty, Miss Francis Turner and Miss Angela Roache. Beauregard Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, is to give a

Coming Events.

card party and tea dance Wednesday

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. A. S. Burleson, Mrs. Lindley Garrison and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt are among the patronesses and will also receive the guests.

The annual "prom" dance of the Interfraternity Association of the George Washington University will be held the evening of April 9. This is always one of the principal social features of the year among George Washington students.

dents.

The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Russell Duvall, Delta Tau Delta; L. H. Brown, Sigma Chi; John L. Tunstall, Kappa Sigma; R. T. Haskell, Phi Chi; A. W. Kenner, Alpha Kappa Kappa, and Frank Wallace Stoever, Phi Sigma Kappa.

The place and other details of the affair will be announced within several weeks.

Friends and patrons of Neighborhood Hous will be entertained at a reception at the home of that institution, 470 N street southwest, Thursday, February

Mrs. William A. Jones, wife of Representative Jones of Virginia, will be hostess at a large buffet luncheon Tuesday, when Mrs. Marshall will be guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp has out invitations for a luncheon on the same day in honor of Mrs. Josephus Daniels.

The secretary of the Smithsonion and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott have out cards

The solicitor of patents and Mrs.

Thomas Ewing will entertain a dinner party March 5. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont will give

A concert will be given for the Eastern Dispensary and Casualty Hos-pital next Tuesday evening at Rausch-

At the Netherlands.

Mrs. Andrew B. Graham, with her son, Mr. Jerome Graham, have moved from Falkstone Courts and have taken an apartment at the Netherlands.

for a dinner March 2.

At Home Tomorrow.

Arnold-Kent Wedding.

One of the most interesting weddings small tea dance yesterday afternoon at of the season will take place next Frithe Fencers' Club, when she was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Clarence Kent, daughter of Representative and Wilson, the Misses Patten and Mrs. Mrs. William Kent, and Mr. George Stanleigh Arnold of California will be married at 8 p.m. at the home of the

the most delightful events of yester-ily party.

the most delightful events of yesterday.

It was attended by about 100 young friends of the hostess, who danced throughout the afternoon in the two spacious drawing rooms. The band from the Mayflower played, and the rooms and inclosed porch were hung with flags and adorned with palms and spring blossoms.

Mrs. Eberle received in a gown of green satin veiled in black tulle embroidered in sliver, and Miss North wore cream panne velvet and chiffon, with pearl and iridescent trimming and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.

Mrs. Randolph Harrison and Mrs. Richard Wainwright presided at the tea table.

The bride's attendants will include her little sister, Miss Adaline Kent, who will be the flower girl, and three former schoolinates. Miss Mary Ormsby of Ross, Cal. as maid of honor, and Miss Margaret Yorke of New Bedford, Mass, and Miss Gabrielle Prout of Nutberley, N. J., as bridesmaids. Dr. H. S. Arnold of New Haven, brother of the bride; and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.

Mrs. Randolph Harrison and Mrs. Richard Wainwright presided at the tea table.

Dixie Chapter Reception.

6, at the Avondale. No cards. Receiv- February 24, at 8:30 o'clock, at Confeding with them will be Mrs. Chapman's erate Memoriai Home, 1822 Vermon man, Mrs. William F. Hancock vice chairman, Mrs. Harrison and Miss Dubose, chairman of arrangements; Miss F. W. N. Weeks, refreshments, and Miss Mary Harold, prizes.

In Honor of a Bride.

Mrs. Bo Sweeney, wife of the assistant secretary of the Interior, will be any the many three controls of the son, Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, tomorrow, from 4 to 6.

Mrs. Bo Sweeney, wife of the assistant with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson. Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season, Mr. Edwin Lee Anderson is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is associated with the Bingham-Yale archeological at home for the last time this season is assoc

We Are Overcrowded Used Upright Pianos

These instruments were taken in exchange for our Players, and are all in good condition. Prices range from

$75, $100, $125 and up

All on $5.00 Monthly Payments NO INTEREST CHARGES

Helbig Bros. 1742 7th Street N.W.

Established 32 Years

M. Brooks The Women's Store

Store Open Monday From 8:30 to 1 O'Clock Our Holiday Sale of Spring Suits, Gowns, Coats & Waists

> —A Real Style Show Awaits You Here

Suits at $25 and $35 Possess all the individuality, smartness and materials only to be found in the highest priced suits. Don't Be Extravagant

We Can Satisfy Your Taste at Moderate Cost

Suits at $35 and $45 Smart Black and White Checks. Clever in every detail.

Spring Gowns, $15, $25 & $35

All new Easter shades that can be used so well right now In crepe de chine, taffeta and Faille silk.

Spring Coats

You will need a coat for the changeable spring weather. Select one now from this fine stock. Choice of Chinchilla or Silk

$19.50

THOUSANDS OF WAISTS

Almost every woman knows of our wonderful waist department. In this department we offer exclusive styles, best qualities at reasonable prices.

Crepe de Chine and Geogette Crepe Waists $2.98 and $5.00

Largest showing of Lingerie and Voile Waists in this city. $1.00, $1.98 and $2.98

Store Closes at 12:30 Monday Best shoe values vet for women Annual Clearance Sale of odd lots and ends of lines of High Shoes and Evening Slippers 300 pairs Women's Evening Slippersnearly all colors-mostly narrow widths, but nearly all sizes. 125 pairs Women's High Shoes, mostly sizes I to 31/2. Reduced From $4 and $5 to $1.85